

Traveling the El Camino Real

Architect Richard Dodd, AIA, returns to the Costa Mesa Historical Society on Sunday February 19, 2012 with his new visual presentation: “Traveling the El Camino Real – the Founding of the California Missions”. Experienced in many architectural styles, Richard obtained a degree in architecture from the University of California, Berkeley in 1953 and has been in business since 1961 in Newport Beach, California. His monthly architectural column in the Orange County Home magazine has received the California Council of the American Institute of Architects award for Excellence in Education. In 2009 he received the Octavius Morgan Distinguished Service Award from the California Architecture Board for volunteer service. Richard is also author of “Architectural Styles – Orange County”, the first comprehensive guide to the evolution of residential styles in Orange County. To find out more about his practice, go to www.richardhdodd.com
So come learn about California’s early years and how the Missions shaped it!

Mission San Juan Capistrano picture from californiamissionsonline.com

Doors open at 2:00, program at 2:30. Free admission and refreshments. We are located at 1870 Anaheim Ave. northwest corner of the Lions Park complex. For further information call (949) 631-5918, visit www.costamesahistory.org or go to facebook/costa mesa historical society

Promoting and preserving Costa Mesa’s history is our mission.